

COME TO THE HARVEST

Objective:

In music, storytelling, drama and scripture to look at seeds of faith planted in us and seeds of faith we plant as heritage seeds of faith for future harvests.

Program Overview:

"Come to the Harvest" is a forty-five-sixty minute musical program led by Christian singer, dramatist, writer, storyteller and songwriter Sam Kauffman, a roster artist of NEAG.

In the season of Thanksgiving, this program examines the concept of "harvest." Through the story of Naomi, Ruth and Boaz we look at people who planted seeds of faith in us and the ways we plant seeds of faith in others for the future.

Program:

Introduction	Introductions Autumn, Thanksgiving and The Season of Harvest Song: I Will Praise the Lord
Part One	Celebrating the Beauty of Fall God Created the Seasons and Festivals Gen 1:14 Song: To Everything There Is a Season
Part Two	An Ancient Harvest - Naomi and Ruth What Did They Have To Be Thankful For? Short Drama: Naomi Song: Wherever You Go
Part Three	A New Life for Naomi, Ruth and Boaz - A Choice Leaving Behind an Old Life - Planting for a New Harvest Song: Come to the Table
Part Four	Naomi & Ruth in the Twenty-First Century - Planting Seeds of Faith A Harvest Story and Applesauce Cake Poem: Applesauce Cake
Part Five	Heritage Seeds Seeds for the Future Song: There Is Life
Part Six	Women of Faith - Past, Present and Future Heritage Seeds and the Promise of the Harvest Song: The Work of Our Hands
Part Seven	Blessing the Harvest Song: A Blessing