

PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENT

Joanna, the wife of King Herod's chief steward, will visit First Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, February 28, 200, at 6:30 p.m.

Experience through the eyes of Joanna the last days of Jesus in drama, story and song. Joanna is portrayed by internationally known Christian writer, singer, song writer and recording artist Sam Kauffman. This uplifting and inspirational original program is the perfect preparation for the celebration of Easter as you will feel you are a witness to Jesus' death and resurrection.

You won't want to miss any part of this inspirational program. For more information, contact _____.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

First Cumberland Presbyterian Church presents internationally known Christian singer and songwriter Sam Kauffman. Through music and drama, Sam portrays Joanna, the wife of Chuza, King Herod's chief steward, who, as a follower of Jesus, courageously went to the tomb on Easter Sunday morning to witness the Resurrection.

This presentation will take place on Wednesday, February 28, 2007 at the church at 1505 North Moore Road.

For more information, call the church office at _____.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

A special performance by Sam Kauffman is scheduled at First Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, February 28, 2007, at 6:30 p.m.

Come and meet Joanna – wife of King Herod's Chief Steward, Chuza – a socially prominent and visible woman of Jerusalem whose life revolved around the life of Jewish royalty, the palace of King Herod and the followers of a Jewish carpenter named Jesus of Nazareth.

Experience through the eyes of Joanna the last days of Jesus in drama, story and song. Joanna is portrayed by internationally known Christian writer, singer, and songwriter and recording artist, Sam Kauffman, in this exciting and inspiring one-hour original musical dramatization.

For more information, call the church office at _____.