

P/R TASTE AND SEE RETREAT

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord” at the annual Women’s
Retreat _____(date), _____(place),
_____ (time)

The theme of the retreat for this year – “Taste and See” - is taken from Psalm 34 that invites us to “taste and see the goodness of the Lord” - to experience firsthand God’s mercy and goodness.

Our retreat will be led by internationally known Christian singer, dramatist, storyteller, songwriter, author and retreat leader, Sam Kauffman, who, through the use of drama, storytelling and special surprises, will encourage us to discover the goodness and the blessings of God at work every minute of our every day lives.

Don’t miss this unique opportunity to be with the women of the church for a special time of fellowship and spiritual renewal.

For more information please call _____ or call the church office at _____.

PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENT

What does God’s goodness taste like to you? How do you experience the blessings and goodness of God?

Come and share a time of retreat and renewal with the women of the church (date), (place), (time). Internationally known Christian singer, dramatist, storyteller, songwriter, author and retreat leader, Sam Kauffman will led us to explore the invitation of Ps. 34 to “Taste and See” the goodness of the Lord through drama, storytelling, music and other surprises.

For more information or reservations contact the church office or

PSA

(FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE)

An Invitation From (Name of Church) to the women of _____ to “Taste and See” the goodness of the Lord.

(Name of church) will offer its annual retreat from Women (date), (place) (time).

The retreat will be led internationally known Christian singer, dramatist, storyteller, songwriter, author and retreat leader, Sam Kauffman, who, through original dramas, storytelling, music and special surprises will explore the sweetness of the God’s everyday blessings.

Don’t miss this wonderful opportunity to Taste and See.

For more information call _____ the church office.

