

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

Easter and Springtime abound with hope – hope found in the Resurrection and in seeds sprouting. They remind us of the women of hope we find in the Bible. The Woman with the Hemorrhage contains a story of hope for all women of every age.

On Sunday, May 28, 2006, Asbury United Methodist Church offers the women of the church an opportunity to explore the hope found in the life of this extraordinary woman in an afternoon retreat led by internationally known Christian retreat leader, dramatist, singer and songwriter, Sam Kauffman.

Through music, drama and prayer, Sam will provide us with the opportunity to take a break from our busy schedule and examine the hope that births faith in our lives.

The retreat starts at 12:30 p.m. after the 11:00 a.m. service and will end by 3:00 p.m. The cost is $ _____.

For more information, call the church office at _____.

PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENT

Have you ever wondered what motivated the Woman with the Hemorrhage to touch the hem of Jesus' robe? Living the life of an outcast through no fault of her own, what did this woman of faith and desperation hope to achieve by simply touching the hem of Jesus' robe?

On Sunday, May 1, 2005, Choteau United Methodist Church offers the women of the church an opportunity to explore the hope found in the life of this extraordinary woman in an afternoon retreat led by internationally known Christian retreat leader, dramatist, singer and songwriter, Sam Kauffman.

Through music, drama and prayer, Sam will provide us with the opportunity to take a break from our busy schedule and examine the hope that births faith in our lives.

The retreat starts at 12:30 p.m. after the 11:00 a.m. service and will end by 3:00 p.m. The cost is $ _____.

For more information, contact the church office at _____.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

THE OUTCAST COMES TO CHOTEAU

Internationally known dramatist, singer and songwriter, Sam Kauffman, will present one of her exciting biblically-based musical dramas as part of the women's retreat on Sunday, May 1, 2005, at Choteau United Methodist Church. This inspiring drama entitled The Outcast explores the role of hope in the healing.

The retreat starts at 12:30 p.m. after the 11:00 a.m. service and ends at 3:00 p.m. The cost of the retreat is $ .

For more information, call Choteau United Methodist Church at . The church is located at .