

Bulletin Announcement

It's that time of year again - time for the annual St. Patrick Women's Lenten Retreat, March 27-28th , Dumas Bay Center at Dash Point. This year, our retreat will be led by internationally known Catholic singer, songwriter, author, retreat and workshop leader, Sam Kauffman, a Seattle native and former St. Patrick's parishioner.

The theme of our retreat is "Women of the Word." Through the stories of Sarah, Ruth, Esther, Mary, Martha and Mary and Mary of Magdala, we will celebrate the lives of women both then and now and their journey of faith as they seek a deeper relationship with the Lord.

The cost of the retreat is $ . For more information, call JoAnn Choi at the church, 206-329-2960.

Pulpit Announcement

Ladies of St. Patrick's - are you tired of winter - tired of the rain? Is work getting to you? Do you wish you could get away with other women from the parish for a bit of rest, relaxation and spiritual refreshment? Well, here is your chance to run away from home - for a couple of days!! Don't worry families, they will return!!

Friday and Saturday, March 26th and 27th, are the dates for the annual St. Patrick Women's Retreat. The retreat will be held at the Dumas Point Center at Dash Point. The cost of the retreat is $ .

The theme for the retreat is "Women of the Word" and our speaker is internationally known Catholic singer, songwriter, author, retreat and workshop leader, Sam Kauffman, a former St. Pat's parishioner and Seattle native who was spirited away from the northwest to California by her husband.

Come and experience this up-lifting celebration of women from biblical times to the twenty-first century. Special surprises await you! For more information, call JoAnn Choi at the office, 206-329-2960.